This Week's Meetings

Apologies received for this evening were from Paulette Andrews, Viv Beaumont, Chris Bence, David Freeman, Cathy Gorbault-Lawrence, Liam Jones, Hugh Lawrence, Fred Sartori, and Bonnie Williams,

At 7 pm President Ruth opened the 2025 Annual General Meeting, welcoming members

The appropriate officers presented their reports.

Treasurer Peter Holland explained in some detail the composition of the various Finance accounts, and what each was used for. He reported that the year had resulted in a net deficit of some $180. In cash terms, the Golf Day income was $6000, Trivia Night $11000, and Shake the Can $3600.

Ruth reported that membership stands at 41, plus 4 honorary members

For the future, President Elect (2026-27) is Bill Dwyer and President Designate (2027-28) is Bonnie Williams

Following the closure of the AGM at 7.55, we then proceeded to our regular weekly meeting.

Janina Taylor proposed the toast to an international Rotary Club, having chosen for this purpose the Rotary Club of Salzburg (RCSI). It is a young club of 45 members, focusing on diversity, inspiration, inclusion and international operation.

We then moved on to the raffle draw: Trevor Harmes and Bill Dwyer both lucky again, while Gary scored the card but not the jackpot in Joker Poker.

Fines were imposed on Samantha (riding camels), Gary (for his shirts (17 Christmas shirts to come!)), and John for his impending birthday.

This weekend we are committed to 2 barbecues on Saturday, and need plenty of helpers.

Walk against Domestic Violence 7.30 at Lions Park (contact Ruth or Bonnie), and at Chittick Park at 11.30 for the All Abilities Basketball: contact Mat.
