ROTARY BOWLS NIGHT

The Rotary Club of Seymour, the Lions Club of Seymour Goulburn together with the VICSES Seymour Unit met at the Seymour Bowling Club on a lovely summer night to participate in the annual bowls playoff.

Our coordinators for the evening were Alison Hall and Alison Ridley both of whom brought their bowling expertise to the role and commenced by dividing approximately 50 attendees into teams for the competition.

Champion bowlers of the night were Russell Chapman, Bill Dwyer and Quillan Palmer each taking home the grand prize of a chocolate bar with a grand score of 11 shots to 2. Community group winners went to Rotary who beat the Lions 14/5 and the SES 14/6.

The evening's raffle prizes were evenly distributed between the community groups.

Rotarians Fiona McCarthy and Jane Challis, and combined Rotarians and RSL members, Trevor Harmes and Kathy Mills.

Rotarian Paulette Andrews has also been involved with the catering.

Following the recent bush fires in our area, Seymour Rotarians have been helping the Seymour RSL Sub Branch to cater for the Seymour Incident Control Centre. The need has now reduced from serving 150 team members per day down to 20. Well done everybody!
