Next week's meeting is our AGM which is restricted to members only.

The room was buzzing as 60 members and guests gathered to celebrate our annual Junior Community Awards. Our Sargeant At Arms Greg Byers brought the room to order and welcomed chairman Dave Palmer to the lectern to open our meeting. President Ruth Byers welcome all our guests including our Junior Community Awards recipients, their parents and teachers. Our District Governor Emma Davis as well as District Governor Elect Paul Miegall were also in attendance.

Rotarian John Barton provided our international toast. Having been a resident of Sacramento, the capitol of California, for 4 years John toasted the Rotary Clubs of the city. There are 5 clubs in Sacramento with the state of California having the 4th largest GDP in the world and a population of 30million. There are 5 clubs in the city with the CBD club having 200 members with strong representation from younger members where club fees are less than the normal fees.

Our Youth Director Fiona McCarthy outlined to objectives of our Rotary Junior Community Awards and detailed to 12 months of work our recipients put into completing the workbooks. A diary of activities that covered various social issues had been completed and submitted with supporting essays on the subjects required. Each of the recipients received a certificate of completion and a thankyou gift. Each presented a short presentation on the value of the awards.

Our award recipients – Vader McKenzie, Ariana Berry, Yanuli Dissanayake, Harriet Allford and Mia Farley along with Youth Director Fiona McCarthy.
