Tonight is Music night.

Gary called us to order on this the last night of Mark's Presidential year. Together we said the Invocation then it was Ron's turn for the Toast.

Tonight the Rotary Toast goes to the Rotary Club of Tehran. There were several Clubs in Iran from 1956 until 1975. The first being the Rotary Club of Tehran. These Clubs were dissolved after the Revolution in Iran; even though Rotary International is non political and non religious.

September	13	Trivia Night	?Ruth Byers

Our guests tonight include Chris Chadwick, Russell and Leanne Chapman. Our apologies are Vivian B., Cathy and Hugh L., Peter H., Liam J., Catriona J., and Fred S.

Chair Gary introduced Pres. Mark. It is Mark's last solo night as President next week there will 2 Presidents Mark and incoming Ruth. As on most last nights you like to remember the past so tonight we will remember the past in Music. But first some celebrations that have slipped by; Greg's birthday a couple of weeks ago and Rotarians who have marked important steps on their Rotary journey. Janina T. 6 years, Alan Walton 27 years, Tony W. 10 years, Ann H. 3 years and Ian C. with 34 years service. Congratulations to you all.

Chair Gary asked for reports.

Fiona reported that the YCA were coming along nicely, 2 students had dropped out but the remaining 9 were progressing very well.

Ruth reported that the Trivia night will be held at the same venue as last year. She was hoping that lighter tables could be arranged. Keep in Mind 13th September 2025 for the night.

Ruth indicated she would give the results of the 2 surveys recently held, next week as well as filling any positions in her year's staff(jobs) If you think there is something you can do, talk to Ruth.

Up coming program nights are 21st July where Liam Jones will inform us about the website and other things media like. 4th Aug. a vocation night visit and another upcoming night to be enjoyed is the Casino Royale night. Ladies get to dress up in their finery!!!!

Gary D. There was a community meeting at Tallarook recently that discussed the building of a Permanent Remembrance site there. There was positive feedback so a Committee was selected and Gary was appointed Chair. Assistance will be supplied by the Council and RSL.

Next we commenced our Musical journey. There was an eclectic selection from all our members and most enjoyed the selections. After hearing from 12 members choices we had a little break to continue eating and to hold the last Sergeant's session for Gary, Sergeant at Arms.

Gary chose to fine only those who barracked for Colling wood but made them sing the theme song first. Then we had 2 cross fines Greg against Tony L. and Ruth B. and Tony L. against Bill D. These fines entertained the members by causing laughs and gentle ribbing.

Finally we heard the choices of the remaining members - another eclectic mix.

Raffles tonight Bill had the Chocs and Kathy the wine: While Alison had a go at the Joker but unfortunately missed and it jackpots to next week with around $1000 up for the winning.

Pres. Mark then finished the night. Mark thought we should listen to Reminiscing by the little River Band and he indicated that it is amazing how music can evoke memories of the past that sometimes get lost. He thanked our guests Chris, Leanne and Russell for coming and hoped they enjoyed themselves. He then thanked us all for coming and wished us a good night.

Wow! how I missed the good 'ol days, 60's, 70's and 80's.

Maybe today's young people don't realize that women from my time—now grandmothers—used to wear miniskirts, tight jeans, tall boots, and even went without bras.

We listened to bands like Led Zeppelin, The Who, The Beatles, Rolling Stones, Jimi Hendrix, and Janis Joplin.

We drove around in Mini Coopers, rode motorcycles, and enjoyed drinks like gin & tonic, whiskey, and tequila.

We went to music festivals, walked through mud, and danced freely with the crowd.

Life felt endless because we didn't have the internet, smartphones, or social media. TV? We hardly paid attention to it.

Just so you know: you'll never be as cool as your grandma once was. Someone had to tell you.
